

At San Felice the search for quality has always been of paramount importance and has encouraged new initiatives for the replanting of its vineyards, technological innovation in the wine cellar and experimentation. However, apart from our diligence and passion here at San Felice, most of our merit goes to our land and to its ability to produce great wines. The high levels of quality and recognition obtained over the years, especially as far as our selections are concerned, are confirmation of this potential and diligence.

AGRICOLA SAN FELICE

In 1997 and 1999 the american magazine Wine Spectator granted Agricola San Felice the "Critics Choice Award" for the high quality of the wines produced.

The guide "Vini d'Italia" by L'Espresso granted Agricola San Felice 1 star.
